

Lynwood Charlton Centre

An Invitation to Apply to Serve on the Lynwood Charlton Centre Board of Directors

If you are interested in child and youth mental health and would like to be part of a dynamic child and youth service organization fulfilling an important governance role, please consider applying for a voluntary position on the Lynwood Charlton Board of Directors.

The Lynwood Charlton Centre is a publicly funded charitable organization in the City of Hamilton providing a spectrum of innovative and evidence-informed, mental health services for children and youth.

Recently LCC has been selected as the Lead Organization for child and youth mental health in Hamilton. Our role is to help transform the experiences of children, youth and families dealing with mental health issues, to improve their access to services and their actual service experience, and to strengthen the community-based system for delivering mental health services to them.

We are currently receiving applications from community members to serve on our Board of Directors.

We are looking for people who will bring their leadership skills and their diverse perspectives to our Board. Specifically we are looking for people with experience in board governance, who will bring their understanding of complex community service environments, financial management systems and/or have lived experience as a family member of a child or youth with mental health challenges.

If you have some of these qualities and are interested in joining our Board please submit your expression of interest to us outlining your skill and experiences and why you would like to serve on the LCC Board of Directors.

Board members commit their time and energy to engage fully in 10 evening board meetings a year as well as participate in some committee work. There is no remuneration for this position.
